PRICE 2 CENTS.

A Most Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts from native medicinal roots and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic and antiferment. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherrybark, Bloodroot, Golden Seal root, Stone root and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery" in subduing chronic, or lingering coughs, bronchitis, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and aids the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherrybark in building up the system, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course, it must not be expected to work in a trice. It will not cure consumption except in its earlier stages. It will cure very severe chronic, or lingering coughs, bronchitis, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

Prof. Finley Lillingwood, M. D., of Barnard Med. College, Chicago, says of glycerine: "It is a powerful agent, serving an excellent purpose. Holding a fixed quantity of the peroxide of hydrogen in solution, it is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action upon the stomach, disordered stomach, especially if there is ulceration or catarrh of the stomach, it is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine will relieve many cases of gastric (heartburn) and excessive gastric (stomach) acidity."

"Golden Medical Discovery" enriches and purifies the blood curing blotches, pimples, eruptions, scrofulous swellings and old sores, or ulcers.

Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet telling all about the medicinal properties composing this wonderful medicine. There is no alcohol in it.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional. Local, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the local. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is the constitutional. The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a whole internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood elements.

The "Night Cure," as its name implies, does the work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, cures nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted strength, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well the "Night Cure."

THE PRESIDENT AT VICKSBURG.

President Roosevelt paid a flying visit to Vicksburg, Miss., Monday and made a speech in the afternoon. He was accorded a hearty reception, after being introduced by Hon. John Sharp Williams. Mr. Roosevelt in his speech said:

"I should not be fit to be President at all if I did not with all my might and main, with all my heart and brain, seek to be in the full sense the President of Mississippi, the President of every State in the union. It is a good thing for an American President to travel over the country, not for what he can teach, but for what he can learn. While I do not like to say, in advance, what I intend to do, I shall break my rule in this case and say that in my next message to Congress I shall advocate, as heartily as I know how, that the Congress now elected shall take the first steps to bring about that deep channelway and the attendant high and broad levee system which will make of these alluvial bottoms the richest and most populous agricultural land on the face of the globe. I believe that through the co-operation of the national government as much can be done in the way of irrigation to relieve the condition in certain southern States as has already been done in the far west."

I am glad to be here in this historic city, this city forever memorable of the conflicts in which valor and valour alike showed such splendid courage, such splendid loyalty to the light as it was given to each. Even before the civil war Mississippi's sons had shown that they knew how to fight. "It was from Vicksburg that a company of that famous Mississippi regiment which won undying renown in the Mexican war under the gallant leadership of its colonel, who afterward became the favorite son, not only of Mississippi, but of all the South, Jefferson Davis, came. Think how fortunate we are as a nation that it is possible for the President of the nation to come here today to be conducted through your national park by the surviving lieutenant general of the Confederate army, and to feel that every instance of heroism recorded by the monuments alike to the Union and to the Confederate dead on that battlefield is a subject for just pride to every citizen of this nation, no matter where he lives.

To check a cold quickly, get from your druggist some little Candy Cold Tablets called Preventives. Taken at the "sneeze stage" Preventives will prevent Pneumonia, Bronchitis, La Grippe, etc. Hence the name. Preventives. Good for feverish children. 43 Preventives 25 cents. Trial Boxes 5 cts. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

DESCENT OF A DESCENDANT.
Most Virginians and probably all the kin and connections of the Fairfax family will share the regret and mortification expressed by the New York Telegraph that Albert Kirby Fairfax, lineal descendant of Lord Kirby Fairfax of Cameron and legal heir to the title, has renounced his American citizenship and become a British subject and baron. Six or seven generations of the Virginia Fairfaxs believed that there could be no higher social position of honor than that of a modest, well-bred, clean-living Virginian gentleman. Conscious of the right to wear the title they ignored it. The father of this young man was a quiet and much beloved country doctor and a good Confederate soldier and, we believe, was inclined to take rather a humorous view of his dormant title.

Probably if young Fairfax had remained in Virginia or Maryland, surrounded by his native atmosphere, he would have gone on like his father before him. He went to New York as a bank clerk, however, and the newspapers there, finding a real American lord, proceeded to exploit him in their usual vulgar and flashy way. Very likely he fell in with some of the element which never has comprehended and never can comprehend the significance and dignity of real gentility. So his head was turned and now he has broken the long and honorable record of his family and exchanged the high honor of being an American gentleman for the cheap return of becoming a British subject and an ordinary peer of Scotland. We doubt if his fellow peers will admire his course very extravagantly. [Richmond News Leader.]

His Dear Old Mother, "My dear old mother, who is now eighty-three years of age, writes me from Dublin, Ga. 'She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite. Feels strong and sleeps well. That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by all druggists. 50c.'

C. & O. RAILWAY.

At the meeting of the stockholders of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway held in Richmond yesterday the charge was made that the annual report was misleading, and H. T. Wickham, counsel for the company, replied that the charge was made only by stock gamblers. Subsequently Mr. Wickham apologized, but those who had made the charge continued to criticize the report.

John P. Branch, one of the oldest stockholders in the road, sharply attacked the report, charging that while the officers were guilty of no wrong, the report was, nevertheless, misleading, in that large sums had been charged to profit and loss, which ought not to have been so charged. Others took part in the discussion, which reached a very warm stage, when Frederick W. Scott, another stockholder, directly accused Henry T. Wickham, general counsel for the road, of insulting and badgering the minority stockholders. The report, however, was adopted, but the minority stockholders left the meeting.

Pointed inquiry from minority stockholders developed the assurance that they might expect more than the usual 1 per cent dividend in the future. The assurance came from the lips of President Stevens, who said that judging from the earnings of the road for the past several months the net earnings for the ensuing year would be the greatest in the history of the company and that the stockholders would have every reason to expect a larger share in dividends.

The old directors of the road were re-elected with one exception, that one being in the person of Martin E. Dham, of New York.
